
MILE KOLAROVSKI MACEDONIAN DANCE WORKSHOP

Eckerd College is presenting a Macedonian dance workshop led by Mile Kolarovski on April 19 and 20. There will be dancing outdoors on Saturday, followed by a lamb barbecue Saturday night. A pancake breakfast will be provided Sunday morning, followed by a review in the Gym. Free sleeping bag space will be available; rooms are available at motels and hotels. The cost will be $9.00 per person; reservations and money must be sent in by April 10th, to Robin Beléy, Box 86, Eckerd College, St. Petersburg, FL 33733, (813) 867-9000. Registration will begin 9:00 a.m. Saturday. Limit 80 people. GO!

The Miami Folk Dancers formed a co-op the first of January which has proved most successful. We are utilizing the talents of four or five teachers instead of just one. We have grown by leaps and bounds and many nights we have over 50 people dancing. Five of our group went to Tampa to perform in the Folkdancefest and from that evolved our new performing group "Ajde." We have danced at the Round-the-World Fair and Dade County Youth Fair. And on March 28-30, the group sponsored a Turkish dance workshop with Bora Özkök, which included dancing outdoors at the University of Miami Saturday night, and a picnic at Crandon Park Sunday afternoon, complete with belly dancing, live music, and sunburns.

The Heritage Committee of the National Dance Association recently voted to honor Paul Dunsing for his contribution to folk dance in America. An article is appearing in JOPER, written by Kirby Todd, Emeritus of Illinois State University, about Paul Dunsing's life and the contribution he made to folk dance in education and recreation. We are very pleased with Gretel Dunsing at this honor.

Articles on the many workshops that have been held recently will appear in next month's issue, when there will have been more time to write them.
