THE ORLANDO DIMENSIONS '76 Planning Committee finally came up with a definite schedule, and folk dancing has been allotted only one hour for the Saturday evening (MAY 8) performance. Accordingly, we are scaling down the extravaganza to include only a few nearby groups. Letters have been sent to participants.

Even if you do not participate as a "performer", you are invited to attend the gala event. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. NO REFUNDS. NO COSTS. Sleeping bag space available.

Workshop - Tampa - Pappas - Greek

JOHN & PAULA PAPPAS, from Stockton CA will be in Tampa June 11, 12, 13 to conduct a workshop in GREEK DANCES. John plays great clarinet, has his own band (likely you've danced to some of his '45's) - brings you dances actually being done in village and tavern (where he's often been a member of the band). Fee $12 includes syllabus, GREEK supper and snacks. $2.00 discount on applications POSTMARKED up to May 24. Registration blanks will be sent to each group listed in FFDC.

Miami - 5th Annual

The FIFTH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL FOLK FESTIVAL will be held in MIAMI May 9 thru June 12. It's extra long this year, because of many Bi-Centennial programs to be included. It always gets a tremendous turnout and we usually try to have a group dance to show everyone what goes on at the UNITARIAN CHURCH every Wednesday nite -- for the past 8 years!

Where's March?

FOLKS! ATTENTION!!! THIS NEWSLETTER IS DATED APRIL -- that does not mean that the MARCH letter was passed up -- It just seemed dumb to date something the end of the month it was coming out in -- SO, your editor took it upon herself to call this the APRIL issue. ARE YOU SO COMPLETELY CONFUSED???? Peace...
